ICBC (Asia) Organized Charity Dance Performance “Qingming Riverside”

23 July 2007, Hong Kong – ICBC (Asia), as a caring corporate in the local community and the Chairman of the Caritas Fund Raising Committee, organized a charity dance performance “Qingming Riverside” on 20 July 2007 at the Grand Theatre of Hong Kong Cultural Centre. The fund raised is for helping the people in need and it consists with the theme of Caritas-Hong Kong Fund Raising Campaign: “Give them a ray of hope”.

ICBC (Asia) has organized the charity dance performance with The Hong Kong Dance Company to raise fund for Caritas-Hong Kong and The Hong Kong Dance Company for four years. The epic dance “Qingming Riverside” originated from the masterpiece of Chinese painting from the Northern Song dynasty. The Hong Kong Dance Company also presents the dance to celebrate the 10th Anniversary of the HKSAR. With the support from ICBC (Asia)’s customers, business partners and the public, an encouraging donation amount was raised this year.

The silk scroll “Qingming Riverside” is a masterpiece by the imperial court painter Zhang Zeduan, who was a member of the Hanlin Academy (an art academy established in the imperial court to train artists) in the Northern Song Dynasty. The Qingming scroll depicts vividly the social prosperity of Bianjing, the capital of the Northern Song Dynasty, with street scenes filled with people from all walks of life. Hong Kong Dance Company turns the stage into the handscroll on which the most important painting in the history of China is manifested with dance and music. The dance explores and illustrates the magnificence and complex culture of China.

“Qingming Riverside” was choreographed by Leung Kwok-shing, the Assistant Artistic Director of the Company. The dance was presented by the pop idol, Vincy, jointly with the Company's dancers and transposed the stage with graceful steps of dance in a brave new world.
