ICBC (Asia) Organized Seminar “Investment Opportunity With The Capital Inflow From Mainland”

11 October 2007, Hong Kong - ICBC (Asia) hosted its third seminar named “Investment Opportunity With The Capital Inflow From Mainland” on 6 October 2007, subsequent to the seminar “Investment Opportunity in Mainland” held earlier this year. The seminar featured three renowned financial speakers, including the reputable media personnel Mr. Heung Shu Fai and Mr. Arthur Shek together with Ms. Cheril Lee of Goldman Sachs (Asia) L.L.C.. It received enthusiastic response from the customers.

ICBC (Asia) concerns about the customers’ need to grasp the information on investment and wealth management, it regularly organize seminar to provide the most updated information for the customers to make appropriate investment plan. Since the launch of QDII last year as well as the announcement of “Hong Kong Stock Through Train”, Hang Seng China H-share Index recorded significant increases and Hang Seng Index reached the new high while the transaction amounts also broke the record. Investors should have a better understanding in order to benefit from this investment opportunity for the coming quarter. This seminar expressed in a lighthearted way to explain the prospect of Hong Kong equity market in the fourth quarter and the interactive development of China and Hong Kong derivatives market.

In accordance with its parent company ICBC’s aspiration to develop the wealth management business and position as the financial specialist providing Preferential, Professional and Personalized banking services, ICBC (Asia) launched the “Elite Club” service. This seminar is one of the value-added services offering to the Elite Club customers.
