“2010 ICBC (Asia) Charity Golf Day” Fund Raising for the Needy by Golf Playing

2 February 2010, Hong Kong - “2010 ICBC (Asia) Charity Golf Day” organized by ICBC (Asia) for the second time was held on 22 January 2010 (Friday). The event was held at Hong Kong Golf Club, Fanling Golf Course while the representatives from over 50 sponsors participated in the tournament. This sport activity on one hand was in the interest of the sponsors while on the other it could raise fund for the needy. With the generosity of the sponsors, this meaningful event finally raised over HK$710,000.

As a caring institution of the local community, ICBC (Asia) is committed to serving the needs of the Hong Kong citizens and doing its best to work for a better tomorrow. Hong Kong Council of Social Service presented ICBC (Asia) with the “Caring Company Award 5 Years+” over the last seven years in recognition of its contribution and commitment to the community. The Bank was also appointed as Chairman of the Caritas Fund Raising Committee for the year 2009-10 for 11 consecutive years.

“2010 ICBC (Asia) Charity Golf Day” was supported by major donors such as Excellence Group, North China Shipping Holdings Co Ltd and Zurich Life Insurance Co Ltd, and raised over HK$710,000. All proceeds without deducting expenses would be donated to Caritas-Hong Kong for expenses on their quality services such as education, medical and social services, etc.

Mr. Stanley Wong, Director & Deputy General Manager of ICBC (Asia), appreciated the support from the business partners and stated during his welcome speech: “Although the economy was recovering in 2009, it was still a tough year. The Bank rebounded from the most difficult days and we were able to achieve reasonable results with our double efforts. I believed that all our business partners shared our experience. Under such circumstances, the fund raised is still better than that of 2009, we must thank all of our clients and business partners for their generous support to the Charity Golf Day.”
