

中國工商銀行(亞洲)
ICBC (Asia)

ICBC (Asia)'s Statement on Suspicious Fraudulent SMS

ICBC (Asia) recently received several reports from customers and the public that they received SMS issued by 「中國工商銀行」 or 「工商銀行」. The SMS stated that the Bank will charge the recipient for annual fee or service fee and requested the recipient to return call to a specific telephone number.

ICBC (Asia) would like to inform its customers and the public that ICBC (Asia) and its holding company ICBC has no affiliation whatsoever to these suspicious fraudulent SMS. Those SMS issued by ICBC (Asia) or ICBC will not request the recipient to return call to a specific telephone number. If anyone received suspicious fraudulent SMS, please do not return call to the telephone number listed on the SMS. You are advised to call the 24-hour Customer Service Hotline of ICBC (Asia) at (852)218 95588. If any customer returned call and are concerned to have revealed his confidential information, please contact the Police immediately.

The Bank has reported the suspicious fraudulent SMS to the Police for further investigation and action.

2 August 2010