Remarks:  Hong Kong SFC and China Securities Regulatory Commission jointly announced that Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect Northbound has been approved and starts on November 17, 2014. The privilege is subject to the relevant Terms and Conditions.

As the largest RMB banking group in the world, ICBC tops the world in RMB total assets and settlement turnover amount. ICBC (Asia) is the overseas flagship of ICBC, as well as a major market participant of the offshore Renminbi market in Hong Kong, especially a market maker in various Renminbi financial market aspects. Moreover, ICBC (Asia) was earlier designated as the Primary Liquidity Provider for the Offshore Renminbi Market in Hong Kong by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority.

By taking advantage of the opportunity of the launch of the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, ICBC (Asia) will fully leverage the strong advantages of the ICBC’s Renminbi business, further reinforce the strengths of the cross-border services by providing high quality and tailored cross-border products and services to customers, so as to assist to activate the market and facilitate the development of the offshore Renminbi market.
Risk Disclosure:
RMB Risk Disclosure:
The value of RMB will be subject to the risk of exchange rate fluctuation. Such fluctuation may result in gain and loss in the event that the customers subsequently convert RMB to other currencies (including Hong Kong Dollar). RMB is currently not freely convertible and subject to regulatory restrictions. For personal customers, conversions conducted through RMB deposit accounts with banks in Hong Kong are subject to the limit of RMB20,000 per person per day. Customers who are Hong Kong residents should allow time for conversion of RMB from/to another currency of an amount exceeding the daily limit. Non-Hong Kong residents are not required to observe the corresponding limits and requirements regarding RMB conversions for Hong Kong residents. Non-Hong Kong residents (i.e. individuals who are not holders of Hong Kong Identity Card) that intend to conduct conversion of RMB through the banks may occasionally not be able to do so fully or immediately, for which it is subject to the RMB position of the banks and their commercial decisions at that moment.

Securities:
Investment involves risk and the prices of securities fluctuate. The prices of securities may move up or down, sometimes dramatically, and may become valueless. It is as likely that loss will be incurred rather than profit made as result of buying and selling investment. Past result should not be taken as indication of future performance. Before making investment decision, you should thoroughly study the offering documents; the financial reports and relevant risk disclose statements issued by the issuer of the investment product(s). Further you should consider your own circumstances and financial position to ensure the investment are suitable for your particular investment needs. You shall seek independent professional advice on legal, tax, financial and other issues in connection with the investment. This document does not constitute an offer for the purchase or sales of any investment products.

Main Risk Disclosures for Northbound Trading Link:
Not protected by Investor Compensation Fund - Investors should note that any Northbound trading under Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect will not be covered by Hong Kong's Investor Compensation Fund. Therefore investors have to bear the risk in the Northbound trading under Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect.
Quotas used up - When the respective aggregate quota balance for Northbound and Southbound trading is less than the daily quota, the corresponding buy orders will be suspended on the next trading day (sell orders will still be accepted) until the aggregate quota balance returns to the daily quota level.
Once the daily quota is used up, acceptance of the corresponding buy orders will also be immediately suspended and no further buy orders will be accepted for the remainder of the day. Buy orders which have been accepted will not be affected by the using up of the daily quota, while sell orders will be continued to be accepted. Depending on the aggregate quota balance situation, buying services will be resumed on the following trading day.
Trading day - Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect will only operate on days (a) when both markets are open for trading and (b) when banks in both markets are open on the corresponding settlement days. So it is possible that there are occasions when it is a normal trading day for the Mainland market but Hong Kong investors cannot carry out any A-share trading. Investors should take note of the days Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect is open for business and decide according to their own risk tolerance capability whether or not to take on the risk of price fluctuations in A-shares during the time when Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect is not trading.
The recalling of eligible stocks - When a stock is recalled from the scope of eligible stocks for trading via Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect for above-mentioned reasons, the stock can only be sold but restricted from being bought. This may affect the investment portfolio or strategies of investors. Investors should therefore pay close attention to the list of eligible stocks as provided and renewed from time to time by SSE and SEHK.

Important Notice:
The above risk disclosure statements cannot disclose all the risks involved. Before making investment decision, you should thoroughly study the offering documents; the financial reports and relevant risk disclosure statements issued by the issuer of the investment product(s). Further you should consider your own circumstances and financial position to ensure the investment are suitable for your particular investment needs. You should seek independent financial and professional advice before trading or investment. This document does not constitute and offer for the purchase or sales of any investment products.
