Risk Disclosure:
RMB Risk Disclosure:
The value of RMB is subject to the risk of exchange rate fluctuation. Such fluctuation may result in gains or losses in the event that the customers subsequently convert RMB to other currencies (including Hong Kong Dollars).

Securities:
Investment involves risk and the prices of securities fluctuate. The prices of securities may move up or down, sometimes dramatically, and may become valueless. It is as likely that loss will be incurred rather than profit made as result of buying and selling investment. Past result should not be taken as indication of future performance. Before making investment decision, you should thoroughly study the offering documents; the financial reports and relevant risk disclose statements issued by the issuer of the investment product(s). Further you should consider your own circumstances and financial position to ensure the investment are suitable for your particular investment needs. You shall seek independent professional advice on legal, tax, financial and other issues in connection with the investment. This document does not constitute an offer for the purchase or sales of any investment products.

Major risks of Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect
Not protected by Investor Compensation Fund - Investors should note that any Northbound trading under Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect will not be covered by Hong Kong's Investor Compensation Fund. Therefore investors have to bear the risk in the Northbound trading under Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect.
Quotas used up - When the respective aggregate quota balance for Northbound and Southbound trading is less than the daily quota, the corresponding buy orders will be suspended on the next trading day (sell orders will still be accepted) until the aggregate quota balance returns to the daily quota level.
Once the daily quota is used up, acceptance of the corresponding buy orders will also be immediately suspended and no further buy orders will be accepted for the remainder of the day. Buy orders which have been accepted will not be affected by the using up of the daily quota, while sell orders will be continued to be accepted. Depending on the aggregate quota balance situation, buying services will be resumed on the following trading day.

Trading day - Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect will only operate on days (a) when both markets are open for trading and (b) when banks in both markets are open on the corresponding settlement days. So it is possible that there are occasions when it is a normal trading day for the Mainland market but Hong Kong investors cannot carry out any A-share trading. Investors should take note of the days when both markets are open for business and decide according to their own risk tolerance capability whether or not to take on the risk of price fluctuations in A-shares during the time when Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect is not trading.

The recalling of eligible stocks - When a stock is recalled from the scope of eligible stocks for trading via Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect for above-mentioned reasons, the stock can only be sold but restricted from being bought. This may affect the investment portfolio or strategies of investors. Investors should therefore pay close attention to the list of eligible stocks as provided and renewed from time to time by SSE and SEHK.

Important Notice

The above risk disclosure statements cannot disclose all the risks involved. Before making investment decision, you should thoroughly study the offering documents; the financial reports and relevant risk disclosure statements issued by the issuer of the investment product(s). Further you should consider your own circumstances and financial position to ensure the investment are suitable for your particular investment needs. You should seek independent financial and professional advice before trading or investment. This document does not constitute and offer for the purchase or sales of any investment products.
